

Joint Training Programme on Trafficking of Women & Children, was held on 20 to 22 March, 2017, at the Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration (LBSNAA), Mussoorie. Organized by the National Gender Centre, LBSNAA with the support of Ministry of Women & Child Development, New Delhi, and programme was attended by the representatives from IAS/IPS/Judiciary of higher levels.

The main aim of the programme was to bring officers from the All India Services and Judiciary together on one platform to interact and address issues related of human trafficking and to share and exchange information on anti human trafficking.

The programme provided a dynamic platform for deliberation and discussion by bringing together senior officers belonging to key departments such as Home, WCD, and Judiciary. The Keynote Address for the programme was delivered by Dr P M Nair (Retd. IPS officer). Other eminent resource persons Ms. Flavia Agnes (Director, Majlis), Ms. Roshan Dalvi (Retired Judge, Mumbai High Court), Dr. Roma Debrata (STOP, India), Dr Praveen Patkar (Prerna) interacted with participants and helped them to plan a roadmap to take the learning's of the programme forward.