

National Gender Centre
NIAR, LBSNAA, Mussoorie

The Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD) and National Gender Centre, LBSNAA organized a two day follow up workshop on Gender Budgeting on 3rd and 4th May 2011 at LBSNAA Mussoorie for the Representatives of Gender Budget Cells of Central level Ministries.

Objectives:

The main objective of the two day programme was to reiterate the concepts of Gender Budgeting and its tools and to identify mechanisms to address the challenges faced by GBCs.

Process:

The programme used a combination of lecture and participatory methods like games, case work, panel discussion and experience sharing to make the workshop more interesting. The emphasis was laid on the sharing and mutual learning. Participants felt at ease during the workshop and took part in the various activities wholeheartedly.

Agenda:

The programme was designed and conceptualized keeping in view the importance of Gender Budgeting and also in order to train and build the capacities of the officials so that they could undertake GB analysis in their programme & policy formulation, review of their policies and guidelines, reprioritization and allocation of resources etc.
