

Workshop on “Best Practices on Governance” (28th to 30th April, 2014):-

National Gender Centre organised a three days workshop to document Best Practises in governance pertaining to different sectors of governance from 28th – 30th April 2014, at LBSNAA with an aim to provide a platform to officers to showcase their initiative and also to use their as a teaching aid in the various training programmes of the Academy. As a first step in this endeavour 17 initiatives were selected and invited for presentation in the workshop. This rigorous learning experience was supported by UNICEF.
