

Workshop Summary for Website

Workshop Information
Program Name	Regional Bhumi Samvaad: Workshop and Training on 'Peer-Learning of Officials of Sikkim on Land Record Modernization'
Venue	District Zilla Hall, Gangtok
Duration	25 July, 2023 To 25 July, 2023

The Department of Land Resources (DoLR), Ministry of Rural Development (MoRD) has entrusted the task of conducting a series of peer learning workshop and training programme on strengthening of Implementation of DILRMP for the revenue officials to the B N Yugandhar Centre for Rural Studies (BNY-CRS) across 17 states. In this series, the BNY-CRS conducted has conducted a one day Regional Bhumi Samvaad: Workshop and Training on “Peer Learning of Officials of Sikkim on Land Record Modernization” for the Revenue and Survey officials of Sikkim on 25-07-2023 in District Zilla Hall, Gangtok, covering important aspects of integration of Land records Databases and Best Practices in terms of Vertical Flat Registration Process. The grey areas were identified in discussion with the Director(Survey) and Additional Director cum Program Director, DILRMP, Sikkim . Based on the identified grey areas, resource persons were invited for the Workshop and Training.

The Workshop & Training was inaugurated by Shri Anil Raj Rai Secretary & Relief Commissioner, Land Revenue & Disaster Management Department, Gangtok, Sikkim and he emphasized on the importance of integration of databases and requirement of updates in the registration process in the State in his key adress. Shri Anshul Gupta, IAS AMD, MPSeDC & DS, DST, Govt. of MP & Shri Akash Shukla Project Manager, Revenue Department, MPSeDC gave a detailed presentation about the Implementation of Revenue Case Management System, Cyber Tehsil initiatives and land records Modernization with respect to the Integration of Land records in Madhya Pradesh and also addressed the queries. Shri Balasaheb Dada Kale Deputy Director, Land Records (Retd.) & Consultant, O/o Settlement Commissioner and Land Records, Govt. of Maharashtra; and Shri Sanjay Motiram Dhongade, Deputy Superintendent, Land Records, Baramati described about the successful process of the Vertical Flat Registration rules its legal applicability and the detailed demonstration about the auto-mutation process implemented in Maharashtra. The queries of the participants were addressed by all the resource Persons.

Shri Phigu Bhutia Director (Survey), DILRMP, Sikkim in his vote of thanks extended a warm regards to the participants for their of valuable contributions to worthwhile Sessions as a result of which the workshop has attempted to build the capacity of the Revenue officials especially with respect to the Vertical Flat Registration. Through this platform, the director solicited the support from MPSeDC for technical support to implement the integration of the Land Records Databases and the request was accepted by the resource persons from MPSeDC. The workshop & training was attended by 40 nos. of Officials of Land Revenue & Disaster Management Department, Sikkim, in the Cadres of Tahsildars, Legal Officers, Revenue Inspectors, Tahsildars, Assistant Directors, Surveyors etc.