About the National Gender Centre- NIAR

National Gender Centre was established in 1995 and got registered as a society under the Societies Act 1860 in 1998. Since 2010, all the Research Centres of Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration, have been merged under National Institute of Administrative Research (NIAR), LBSNAA.

Our Vision and Mission

Our mission is to work with a global network of partners to:

- Develop dynamic ideas and analysis on the gender issues that shape our world
- Use innovative teaching for trainings, authoritative research and cutting-edge communications to influence key audiences in order to achieve our vision.

Our Aim is to mainstream gender in policy, programme formulation and implementation in Government so as to establish gender as a priority concern in government and to ensure the equitable development of men and women. The centre tries not to present Gender Studies as the Studies of Women in isolation but the study of interaction of various variables that exist within the society and effect the processes within it.

Approach NGC's approach to gender equality has been to ensure that all aspects of its training programme mainstream gender equality issues in design and implementation and monitoring. Centre is trying to bring change in the perception through courses, training programmes, research work, brainstorming sessions, panel discussion etc.

Workshop Design

Aim

This conference is being organized with an aim to develop and design gender training modules, for the different courses/programmes run by the Academy for civil servants and consider the most appropriate nature of training inputs for the various courses.

Objectives

- To develop training modules on Gender issues for the various programmes conducted in the Academy;
- To determine and prioritize the range and duration of inputs in FC, Phase - I, II, III, IV & V;
- To identify the objectives, structure and contents of training modules for different levels;
- To identify the subject areas for inclusion either as modules or underlying themes for strengthening gender inputs in the Courses organised by LBSNAA;
- To identify and empanel the experts/resource persons to structure the training modules, resource material and deliver the proposed training at all levels and
- To redesign the existing syllabi of LBSNAA to make it gender responsive.

Experience Sharing

We hope that Course will be a two-way learning process and the experiences of the resource person would contribute to the learning outcomes of the group. At the end of the programme we would like the group to propose the thematic inputs, number of sessions and days to be given at the different stages of the courses and come up with the core inputs and additional inputs to be provided in the programmes. We also expect that the group will be able to help in preparing resource material like reading material, audio-visual and case studies.

Group Work

The experts would be expected to work in groups so that their collective knowledge and experience can be converted into critical inputs.
