Take a Book & Give a Book Facility

An attempt of sharing knowledge — leave a book you have read and take one you wish to explore. This exchange keeps books in circulation and encourages a culture of reading, trust, and community learning.

Civil Services Collection (Making of the Nation)

This collection features books written by and on the Civil Servants of India, highlighting their unique experiences in governance and public service. It captures real-life administrative challenges, policy insights, and field experiences that have contributed to nation-building.

Gyanlok Collection

On 23 May 1984, a devastating fire destroyed the Academy's library, resulting in the loss of nearly 1.6 lakh books, to rebuild the collection, nearly 30,000 books from the personal library of Shri P. K. Jain, Gyanlok Research Centre, Dehradun, were acquired and are now housed as the Gyanlok Collection.

The collection focuses on the economic, social, religious, philosophical, cultural, and political history of India and the world. It also includes rare and valuable materials such as old gazetteers, manuals, guidebooks, annual reference works, census records (dating back to 1889), official and administrative reports, constitutional and parliamentary papers.
